PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear parishioners,

REJOICE! As we enter Third Sunday of Advent, we celebrate with joy and anticipation the coming of our Lord, Jesus at Christmas. Please continue to find time to spend in prayer in preparation for His coming.

May you continue to have a blessed Advent. Remember, God loves you and I love you!

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Tuan

Pastor, St. Peter the Apostle Parish

FR. TUAN, PASTOR

Rejoice! We hear the word again and again on Gaudete Sunday, for the Lord is near, already even in our midst. It is easier to recognize that with only ten days until Christmas, but the prophets sensed the Savior's presence well before he was born. Because of that certainty, Zephaniah could tell the people, "You have no further misfortune to fear" (3:15). Hard to accept a generation later when they were driven into exile! Paul repeats the sentiment, "Have no anxiety at all" (Philippians 4:6), though Christians were persecuted then and for many more decades. Today, terrible things still happen, and it is tough to rid ourselves of all anxiety. But it is a great consolation to us here and now to realize that Jesus, who loves us, who redeems us, and who leads us to eternal life, is indeed in our midst. That can assuage the worries that threaten to overwhelm us, allowing us to take to heart the words of John the Baptist, who tells the crowds who come to him for baptism: Share with those in need, be content with what you have, and treat others as you would have them treat you. Doing so is a sign that Jesus is here with us, bringing not only himself, but God's kingdom into our midst.

Who can you share with or treat better, giving both you and them a glimpse of Jesus' nearness to us?
